

Where is the trip exploring and who can go?

The trip will start in Quito, Ecuador, and then move to the Galapagos Islands, off the coast of South America. Students in grades nine through 12 are eligible AND parents are welcome to travel!

What is the cost of the trip?

The total cost of the trip is $4,390. We know that this price is expensive, but the experience your student will have is priceless! The cost breaks down to $365/day, and includes airfare, transportation, hotels, meals, guided sightseeing, entrances to museums, full time tour director and expert local guide fees, and the full support and backing of the EducationFirst company for risk management and safety.

Can my student earn credit for this trip?

Yes. Students can earn credit towards graduation for this trip, giving them greater choice and flexibility in their schedule.

Faculty leaders for this experience are Brian Cole and Tara Walker. For itinerary and specific pricing, please visit the tour's webpage.
